PREPARING FOR THE CANVASS. THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE TAKE STEPS TO SECURE HEADQUARTERS IN THIS CITY.

Chicago, June 26 .- A meeting of the Republican National Committee was held at the Grand Pacific after the convention adjourned last night. J. S. Clarkson was elected permanent chairman and Samuel Fessenden permanent secretary. A com-mittee of seven was appointed to secure a New-York narters and to make other preliminary arrangements. J. S. Clarkson was made chairman of this so, the other members being J. S. Fassett, New-York: J. Manchester Haynes, Maine; Samuel Fessenden, Connecticut; Geerge W. Hooker, Vermont; Carrett A. RATIFIED ON THE SPOT. AN IMPROMPTU GATHERING IN THE GRAND PACIFIC -MR. DEPEW'S SPEECH.

Chicago, June 20.-The first Harrison ratification neeting was held last night in the Grand Pacific. The enthering was an impromptu one, organized by Sidpublic headquariers for Senator Allison as it was sed four years ago for Mr. Blaine. Mr. Foster had teen in charge of these headquarters during the Allison campaign. He conceived the notion of inviting the Indiana people in to ratify. Going over to the Indiana headquarters he invited them to the on room and the crowd marched down headed by Mr. Foster, ex-Congressman Peele, of Indiana, fi. F. March and "Long" Jones, of Illinois, singing "John Brown's Body." The room was filled in less than two minutes and was crowded to the doors before Mr. Foster could mount the platform. In welcoming them Mr. Foster said the Iowa people had come to Chicago to help nominate the man who should be the next President. He pledged the carnest support of Iowa and 35,000 majority for the ticket.

Specches were also made by Congressman Peele, of Indiana; Butterworth, of Ohio; Hepburn, of Iowa; Senator Hiscock, of New-York; ex-Governor Porter, of Indiana; Chauncey M. Depaw and others. Depew's remarks provoked much laughter and auplattse. He said :

Fellow Grangers: (Great laughter.) Nothing pleases me as much as to meet these intelligent farmers with whom I act and live and whose occupation has been mine all my I inherited a farm when I was born and I have trouble with the transportation companies because there was no surplus on the farm to transport. When you arrive at that condition the trouble between the railways and the granger people will cease. (Laughter.) I never saw a convention go harmonious at its opening, so long continued and so harmonious at its close. When I had met the chemy and belonged to him, I had the felicity of occupying enemy and belonged to him, I had the felicity of occupying a position seldom accorded to any one on this earth—I pro-nounced my own obtiuary. The result of the convention has been the best that could possibly be arrived at. And I say this with no reflection upon Senator Allisen, or Senator Sherman, or the gallant soldier, General Alger, nor upon my friend Judge Gresham, a man who in public and private life stands supreme among those who are considered the Mr. Depew predicted, as did all the others, success

Congressman Butterworth, of Ohio, said his heart was fairly overflowing. "I was for Sherman, of course, but now I am for Harrison, and Ohio will give him its electoral vote."

Senator Frank Hiscock, of New-York, took occasion to claim that New-York had influenced the Convention and was directly responsible for Harrison's nomination. The State had presented a candidate who could have swept it with a tremendous Republican majority. But he had declined out of deference to a Granger sentiment found to exist in the West. He regretted his declination, but at the same time rejoiced that darrison had been taken up and that New-York's advice had been taken by the party. He believed that his state would at the November election prove the wisdom of the selection.

The speaking at this point was interrupted by the reading of a dispatch from the German-American Club of New-York which congratulated the party on its nomination.

SHERMAN WILL GIVE HIS HEARTY SUPPORT. Washington, June 26 (Special).-Senator Sherman, in conversation to-day, took occasion to reiterate the assurance, already mentioned in The Tribune, that he would give the ticket nominated at Chicago his earnest support. He further spoke of the broad comprehenless of the platform and of the acceptable character of the nominees. But he seemed to think that in the treatment of Mahone and his delegation from Virginia the Convention had not been altogether just either to Mahone or to himself.

They were introduced by Major Grubbs, and in response General Harrison said:

Gentlemen: Called as I have been by the National Convention of one of the great political parties of this country to be its candidate for the Presidency, it will probably be my fortune before the election to receive many delegations representing various interests and classes of our follow cilizens, but I am sure that out of them all; there will come none whose coming will touch my heart so deeply as this visit from my comrades of the 70th Indiana and these scattered members of the other regiments that constituted the Third Division of the Twentieth Army Corps. I recall the scenes to which Major Grubbs has aliabed. I remember that summer day, when, equipped and armed, we were called to leave our homes and cross the Ohio River and enter the territory that was in arms against the Government which we had sworn to support. I recall, with you, the tender parting, the wringing of learts with which we left those we loved. I recall the high and buoyant determination, the resolute carriage with which you went to do your part in the work of suppressing the great rebellion. I remember the scenes through which we went in that hard discipline of service and sickness, and all of those hard incidents which are necessary to convert citizens into veterans. I remember the scenes of battle in which we stoud together. I remember cspecially that broad and deep grave at the foot of the Resaca Hill, where we left those gallant comrades who fell in that desperaic charge. I remember through it all the gallantry, devotion and steadfastness, the highest pairiotism, you always exhibited. I remember that sproud scene of which we were part that day—the glad rejoicing as our faces were turned homeward, the applace which greeted as as the banner of our regiment was now and then recognized by some home friends who had gathered to see us. The whole course of these incidents—of battle, of sickness, of death, of victory, crowned thus by the triumphant resurrection of Nat

OF TREACUERY TO SHERMAN. Columbus, Ohio, June 26 (Special).—Ohio Repub-licans are much disappointed that an Ohio man was not nominated at Chicago when it was apparent that Sherman could not be the candidate. Early on Mon-day Foraker's friends knew that they could nominate him if Sherman was given up, but Sherman's friends made so many accusations of treachery and threatened all sorts of political evil for Ohio if Sherman was deserted on any ballot, that Foraker advised every friend to remain true to Sherman, even if it was hopeless. To-day Governor Foraker returned from Chicago with many other State officers. At the Union Depot thousands of Republicans had gathered to give him a reception. He was escorted to his home by a large procession, and there he responded to the honor by saying:

"Gentlemen of the Club: I could not do less than thank you for this unexpected honor, for unexpected it most certainly is. We are not returning home crowned with honors. Your actions, however, are probably in accordance with the last telegram I received from the Hon. John Sherman before leaving Chicago. In this telegram he said he desired to thank the Ohio delegation for the chips delegation the Ohio delegation for its efforts in his behalf, and that it had done all in its power for his nomination. This gives the lie to the statements heretofore made, that there was danger of the delegation proving recreant to the trust imposed upon them by the Republicans of Ohio. There never was anything in this except in the minds of the infernal rescals who cirted the reports, but they are knocked out and too dead to skin. We did not get Sherman, and as Indiana was inclined to give him the go-by, we concluded to take her in and also New-York." (Cheers.) Some reference was made to Judge Thurman by the crowd, and the Governor replied: "The Stars and Stripes have taken the place of he bandanna, which has been relegated to the time when long and tiresome siege, I propose to go and get some-thing to eat and some sleep, after which we will buckle on the armor as you have done, and it shall not be taken off till it is time to inaugurate our successor to Grever Cleveland." it had no political significance. Mr. Depew could not make himself heard for some minutes on account of the uproar. After quiet was restored, he said:

I had made up my most fortunate that I mind being born in Peckskill, but hereafter, if my advice is New, Colonel Dudley, Astorney-General Mich-New, Colonel Dudley, Astorney-General Michener, and other leaders of the Harrison supporters at Chicago. They were given a particularly cordial welcome. The introductions of the Vermonters to General Harrison by Colonel Dudley were of the old style, and at once placed the New-Englanders on terms of familiarity with the Kepublican standard-bearer. Their visit concluded by one of the number calling out just as he was leaving the parior: asked, I shall advise a boy to be born in Eric County. Eric County is the political thermometer of New-York. If you have arrived at fever heat now two days after the nomination, you will be at the boiling point by election time. I have returned from Chicago bringing on my car a Presidential corpse, but I promise that before the campaign is over, I will prove it the liveliest corpse that ever escaped burial. The results of the Convention were satisfactory to the Convention, and, I believe, to the whole country.

The Indiana delegation took seats in a carriage headed by a brass band. The procession started from the depot, and the streets through which the procession passed were jammed with spectators. Fully 20,000 people lined the streets, and almost half of the crowd seemed to be blowing tin horns. The California and the Indiana delegates were cheered vociferously all along the route of the procession from the depot to the new Denison House. After eating supper, the members of two delegations took carriages, and going to the house of General Harrison congratulated him upon his nomination. General Harrison thanked them all heartily for the honor they had done him.

Ronfires were lighted, firecrackers and Roman caudles were set off and the big Republican headquarters in Broad-st. were brilliantly illuminated.

The news of the nomination of Harrison was received in Rahway with great enthusiasm, and preparations were at once began by the members of the Young Men's Republican Club appropriately to celebrate as soon as the nominee for Vice-President became known. It was 9 o'clock before the news of Mr. Morton's nomination was received, and as soon as it became known the members of Vall Battery brought out their cannon and began firing a salute 100 guns. Crowds of Republicans gathered from all parts of the city, and the street in front of the Republican headquarters was soon packed with enthusia-tic Republicans who gave vent to their happiness and enthusiasm by singing. The Gles Club of the Repub lican Club were gathered together and, taking the lead, sang such patriotic songs as "The Red, White and Rlue," "Columbia," "Rally 'round the Flag" and "Marching Through Georgia." The enthusiastic Republicans took up the songs, and for blocks around the air rang with the joyful notes. The headquarters was trimmed with hunting, and across the front of the building long strings of Chinese lanterns added to the brilliancy of the scene, while from the sidewalks arose brilliant lights in all colors of Greek fire. No such scene of enthusiasm has been seen in Rahway for years. Republicans of all shades of opinion, and many who withdrew their support in 1884, met in spirit of har mony, and all pledged to work hard to bring New-Jersey into the Republican line next November.

There was a grand rally at the headquarters of the U. S. Grant Republican Club, at Spencer's Hall, forth Plainfield, on Monday evening. Rousing speeches were made by Charles Place, Gouncilman Needham, President-elect Reed, the Rev. Mr. Taylor and others, heartly indorsing the nomination of Harrison and Morton, and pledging the entire support of the club for the ticket. Twenty-five new members were added to the roll, swelling it to 175. About 300 were in attendance. The occasion was enlivened by the colored drum corps (who rendered some rattling music). There was also a good display of fireworks. As the first gun of the campaign, it was considered a good one. PROVIDENCE SALUTING THE TICKET.

-REPUBLICANS WELL SATISFIED. Providence, R. I., June 26 (Special).—The Republicans of Rhode Island were hoping for and expecting the nomination of Blaine, so that the first feeling over the nomination of Harrison was one of disappointment. It was not an hour, however, before they began to feel that a wise thing had been done in taking the candidate from a doubtful State. This, coupled with the nomination of Morton, is now regarded as the best thing that could have been done. At 8 o'clock last night a procession was formed, headed by two bands, and marched through the principal streets, cheering for Harrison. A flag bearing his name was flung to the breeze, and a National salute was fired.

Many Republicans who voted against Blaine are much pleased at the result, as it gives them an opportunity to come back to the fold without doing violence to their pride. Several of this class are the most enthusiastic Harrison men to-day. The attitude of "The Journal," in declaring that the issue is one of principles and not men, and that it prefers the Democratic principles upon the tariff, has opened the eyes of many Republicans who were following the lead of that paper info the enemy's camp. On the square issue of the tariff, Rhode Island will vote for protection by an enormous majority. There is, therefore, the best and most harmonious feeling in Republican circles to-day, of any time for the last four years. the breeze, and a National salute was fired.

He said: "The loyalty of this beloved State has so touched my heart that I can only say, God bless If in my future life I can only show myself worthy of this great confidence you have reposed in me, I shall be deeply thankful. We are all Harrison me, I shall be deeply thankful. We are all Harrisol men here to-night, and we should all work for him. We may have been disappointed. If I had not wanted the office, I should not have worked for it, but my disappointment is nothing to be compared to the great victory we will achieve in November. We want to put away all question about Michigan being a doubtful State. Wheever is our standard-bearer, he is our man."

MR. FORD PRAISES THE TICKET AND PLATFORM. Patrick Ford has not as yet returned from Chicago. He sent this telegram, which will appear in "The Irish

World" to day : The result of the Chicago Convention, although a disar pointment to the ardent admirers of Blaine and especially to the Irish, is not unacceptable to Republicans generally. The nominees are worthy gentlemen and the platform has the true ring in it. Nevertheless the Republican party, in my judgment, will find the road to Washington a hard one to travel the cowing fall.

Seegep, Professor of Medicine at the University of Vienna, in his celebrated work on diabetes mellitus, says: Of all remedies in my large experience with this disease, and the many experiments which I, as well as such prominent men as Anger, Fleckles, Illawezek, and others, have made, Carlsbad Water deserves to be placed in the first rank.

All of the above writers agree with me that the use of the Carlsbad Waters exerts a very benedicial inducate in Diabetes. I have in the course of many years treated a very large number of patients suffering with the disease, and have with great interest noticed the effect of Carlsbad Water in reducing the amount of sugar. Dr. Hoffmeister in a recent lecture says: The unnatural motions of the stomach causing pressure and belchings, the irritations of the intestines resulting in catarrh of the bowels, and the inflamed mucous mem-branes are the most fruitful of all known causes of disease. Out of them grow most kidney and liver troubles, disbetes, all rheumatic affections and gout. I have found that the unnatural motions of the stomach cease, the intestinal troubles become soothed, and health results from the use of Carishad Water. A MADMAN'S CONFESSION.

HE SAYS HE KILLED LITTLE FRANK WILLIAMS ON SUNDAY-HIS FORMER CRIMES.

Henry Soper, the farm laborer who was arrested or suspicion of killing Frank Williams, age six, the son of James Williams, of Cold Spring Harbor, L. L., whose body was found in a field near his father's house on Monday, confessed yesterday that he murdered the child. After the inquest was held on Mor day night and the jury had rendered a verdict to the effect that Soper was responsible for the child's death, the prisoner was taken to the town jail in Huntington, Constable Ferguson remaining with him all night. soper fell asleep shortly afterward and slept until o'clock this morning. His first words to Constable Ferguson were: "I own up I killed Frank. I want to make a confession and tell you all about it." The constable sent at once for Justice Hendrickson and rulns of the building occupied by Foster, Hilson & Co. Coroner Woodard, and on their arrival at the jail Soper made a full confession of the way in which he this work, a thorough search was made of the rules had killed the boy and bidden his body.

Soper assigned no motive for the crime and did not appear to realize the enormity of it. He is about thirty-eight years old, short and slim, and of dark a vain one, however, and many an anxious heart was complexion. He has been subject to flis of mainess, at which times he became almost uncontrollable. It appears that ten years ago Soper attempted to kill insurance on the stock of Lichtenstein Bros. & Co., Ella Birmingham, age seven, inflicting serious in-juries on her. He was sent to prison for five years for the offence. After his release he returned to Cold Spring Harbor and obtained employment as coachman for Sidney Titus, whose barn he set on fire six months later. He was tried and convicted of prion, and was sentenced to two years in the State prison.

He again returned after leaving prison and was employed by Andrew Tiris. There appeared to be would inflicted with a knife on the boy's body, but Soper denies using a knife, and none has yet been found. Justice Hendrickson yesterday committed Soper to the Riverhead Jail to await the action of the Grand Jury. It is feared that the mother of the murdered boy will not survive the shock of his death.

CONFIRMATIONS BY COURTESY.

A TOO COMMON PRACTICE IN THE SENATE. CIVIL SERVICE REFORM AS EXEMPLIFIED IN A PECENT APPOINTMENT.

Washington, June 26 (Special),-Confirmations by courtesy, without formal action of the Judiciary Committee in the Senate, are becoming entirely too numerous. Senator Blair, of New-Hampshire, discovered yesterday afternoon that Mr. Smith, the nomince of Brewer Jones, the Democratic Boss of New-Hampshire, had been put through in this way, and moved a reconsideration. The point of order was raised that as more than two executive sessions had been held since Mr. Smith's confirmation, the motion came too executive journal. The effect is to install in the most responsible position in the internal Revenue Service a man utterly without experience in this par. late. The point was sustained, after reference to the Service a man utterly without experience in this par-ticular branch of the law, in place of an officer who has served most acceptably for twenty-seven years, and whose retention was requested by Commissioner Miller on the sole ground of his efficiency three years ago, when Attorney-General Garland asked for his resignation. On that occasion, Mr. Cleveland, not having yet "cut loose from his moorings" to the Civil Service Association, requested, in an autograph letter, the occupant (Mr. Chesley, of New-Hampshire) to the occupant (Mr. Chesis), of New-Hampshire) withdraw his resignation, which was done. A political canpaign being now on hand, Mr. Chesiey has been supplanted by the nominee of the Democratic State Central Committee of New-Hampshire, who is said to possess no qualifications for the position except political availability.

MISCELLANEOUS BAILWAY INTELLIGENCE. Tilton, N. H., June 26.—The officers of the Concord Railroad are making arrangements for a meeting with the officers of the Boston, Concord and Montreal and Northern roads to be held soon. It is intended to lead to a new deal in railroad matters pertaining to the central part of the State. It is said that the Concord desires to lease the Northern road for a long term of years. The present lease of the Northern to the Boston and Lowell may terminate at any time by proper notice. The meeting, if successful, will result in placing the control of New-Hampshire under one railroad management.

to New-York, which was reduced from 65 to 46 1-2 cent per 100 pounds on Monday, was further reduced to 40 cents' to-day by the Vanderbilt lines. All the other roads in the Association, so far as could be learned, followed suit, though no formal notice of this reduction was given to the chairman of the Freight Committee. The alleged reason for this drop was that the Chicago and Atlantic and Eric roads put their rates down to 40 cents in order to preserve the differential which they have heretofore been allowed. The air was thick with rumors concerning cuts in grain and provision rates, but none of them could be fully verified. The 40-cent cut rate on dressed beef applies only to New-York business, the Boston rate remaining at 461-2

Cour and provisions by the lines in the Central Traffic Association last week aggregated 12,246 tons, against 12.300 tons for the preceding week, a decrease of 141 tons. The Vanderbilt lines carried 49.2 per cent of the total tennage: Pennsylvania lines, 20.6; Grand Trunk, 15.9; Baltimore and Ohio, 7; Big Four, 1.1.

On May 9, 1886, the first medal contest was held in New-York City, and since then 816 silver and 68 gold medals have been awarded in 26 different States and Territories. Miss Lillian Kershaw, of Fairport, secured the coveted prize, and Miss Rose H. Hans, of New-York, "honorable mention."

Prior to the opening of the Convention a prayer and conference meeting was held, presided over by the Rev. Dwight Williams, of Cazenovia.

OPENING THE CONVENTION WITH SONG The Convention was called to order at 11:10 by Fred F. Wheeler, and was opened with a song by the Silver Lake Quartette, entitled "The Recruiting Station." The song was received with applause, the last three lines being:

We'll get so mighty frisky

That we'll everturn the whiskey, For we're a mighty jolly lot of cranks. Prayer was offered by the Rev. D. W. C. Hunting. ton, of Olean. Among those called to the platform were several gentlemen who have figured on Prohibition tickets in past years.

Frank E. Baldwin, of Elmira, was chosen tem. porary chairman. Declaring that the first issue in politics to be settled was the liquor question, he said: We have elected our issue before the American people, and all we have to do is to fight it out on that line. We know that the Democratic party is not with us and will not help. We know that the Democratic party is con-trolled by the whiskey element. We ought to accept the Republican temperance resolution for just what it is orth—nothing.

The speaker then referred to the Prohibition nominees, which was the signal for cheers and waving of hats, handkerchiefs and fans.

Frank C. Smith, of New-York, presented a gavel to the Convention on behalf of H. T. Dunbar, corps commander of the Blue and the Gray of the State of mander of the Blue and the Gray of the State of New-York. The gavel is made of wood from a tree that grew on Little Round Top, the scene of an important event in the battle of Gettysburg.

A. A. Hopkins offered a resolution that three committees of eight members each be appointed on credentials, permanent organization, and programme. After considerable debate the resolution was adopted, Then the matter was reconsidered and during its consideration so much confusion ensued that a recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

Cured by Cuticura. I have been afflicted since last March with a skin disease the doctors called eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA REMEDIES so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and RESOLVENT internally, for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement, MRS. CLARA A. FREDERICK.

And Every Species of Itching and Burning Diseases

Broad Brook, Conn.

Your most valuable CUTICURA REMEDIES have done my child so much good that I feel like saying this for the benefit of those troubled with skin disease. My little girl was troubled with eczema, and I tried several doctors, and medicines, but did not do her any good until I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES, which specifiy cured her, for which I owe you many thanks and many nights of rest. ANTON BOSSIMER, Edinburgh, Ind.

I was afflicted with Eczema on the Scalp, Face, Ears and Neck, which the druggist, where I got your remedies, pronounced one of the worst cases that had come under his notice. He advised me to try your CUTLOURA REMEDIES, and after five days' use my scalp and part of my face were entirely cured, and I hope in another week to have my cars, neck and the other part of my face cured.

I gratefully acknowledge a cure of Eczema, or Salt Rheum, on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk, except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help myself for eight years; tried hundreds of medicines; doctors pronounced my case hope-less; permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.
